FIRST SUPERSEDING INDICTMENT

The Grand Jury charges that:

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

At all times material to this indictment:

1. LONNIE G. VERNON (“L. VERNON”) and KAREN L. VERNON (“K. VERNON”) were residents of Salcha, Alaska.

BACKGROUND

2. In July, 2009, the United States filed a civil tax case against L. VERNON and K. VERNON (also referred herein together as “THE VERNONS”) in the United States District Court for the District of Alaska alleging that they owed $118,000 as a result of failing to pay taxes to the Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”) over the course of several years. This case is captioned United States v. Lonnie G. Vernon and Karen L. Vernon, No. 4:09-cv-00038-RRB. The case was assigned randomly to United States District Court Judge Ralph R. Beistline. THE VERNONS chose to represent themselves in this tax case.

3. In 2009, THE VERNONS filed a Counterclaim against the United States as part of their civil tax case. In response, the United States filed a Motion to Dismiss THE VERNONS’ counterclaim. The District Court, per Judge Beistline, issued an order granting the United States’ motion and dismissed THE VERNONS’ counterclaim. In that order, dated December 28, 2009, at Docket 19, the District Court also advised THE VERNONS’ of a possible foreclosure sale of their property to satisfy the tax due to the IRS.

4. On February 11, 2011, the District Court, per Judge Beistline, issued an order indicating that motion that had been filed by THE VERNONS was frivolous, and recommended that they obtain legal counsel for their own benefit.

5. On January 11, 2011, the District Court issued another order denying THE VERNONS' request to amend their pleadings, indicating that the motion was irrelevant and immaterial. Thereafter, the United States filed with the court a motion for summary judgment.

6. On February 11, 2011, the District Court issued an order that the VERNONS were required to respond to the United States' motion for summary judgment by March 7, 2011.

DEFINITIONS

7. Title 26 of the United States Code makes it unlawful for a person to possess a machine gun, a silencer or a destructive device that is not registered to that person in the National Firearms Registration and Transfer Record, or to make a firearm in violation of the provisions of Title 26 of the United States Code. See 26 U.S.C. Sections 5845(a) and 5861 et seq.

8. Title 26, United States Code, Section 5845(f)(1) defines "destructive device" to include grenades and any combination of parts either designed or intended for use in converting any device into a destructive device and from which a destructive device may be readily assembled.

9. Title 18, United States Code, Section 921 defines the term "firearm silencer" and "firearm muffler" to mean any type of device for silencing, muffling, or diminishing the report of a portable firearm, including any combination of parts, designed
